Linen Thread: about 12-15"

White Glittered Organdy Ribbon: about 32"

Instructions:

1. Wrap your mini pie box with Harvest Meadow Designer Series Paper, then wrap with White Glittered Organdy Ribbon and tie a big bow.
2. Score and fold the Crumb Cake Cardstock strip then die cut with the largest tag die. Be sure to place the cutting blade at the top of the tag over and past the fold. You do not want to cut the fold off and make two tags. Open the little mini tag card, put it back into the Stampin' Cut and Emboss Machine and texture the front using the Stitched Greenery Die. Glue the "D" reinforcer to the tag and set aside to dry.
3. Adhere the designer series paper circle to the white scallop circle using Multipurpose Liquid Glue, then pop it onto the tag using Stampin' Dimensionals.
4. Using Memento and Stampin' Blends, stamp, color and fussy cut the pie and plate. Stamp the outside greeting on the skinny white label and the inside greeting on the ticket corner rectangle using the same ink.
5. Adhere the die cut leaves to the back of the skinny greeting label and then adhere to the tag using Stampin' Dimensionals. Adhere the plate and the pie to the tag using the same adhesive.
6. Cut the Everyday Label punched tag in half. Put liquid glue on the cut edge and glue it to the ticket corner label. Adhere them to the inside of the mini tag card.
7. Die cut the inside leaves with adhesive sheet on the back of the scrap making peel and stick leaves, peel and stick inside the card. Tie a tiny Linen Thread bow and glue inside at the base of the little leaves.
8. Tie the tag to the wrapped mini pie box using a length of Linen Thread.
9. Embellish with Matte Decorative Dots.
